- ! if the insured misleads the insurer about the facts related to the entitlement to the benefits and/or the amount of the benefits, the insurer is not obliged to provide the benefits;
- ! the insurance does not cover things or damages excluded from the insurance in the General Insurance Terms and Conditions, Special Insurance Terms and Conditions or the insurance policy;
- ! if the indemnity limit is set, the amount of indemnity is limited by the amount of the set indemnity limit;

Where am I covered?

- ✓ unless otherwise stated in the insurance policy, the insurance covers the insured items only if damage to the items occurred at the place stated in the insurance policy as the place of insurance, while it can be defined by address, plot number or territorial scope;

What are my responsibilities?

- answer completely and truthfully all the insurer's written questions, including e-mail communication and complete the questionnaires related to arrangement of the insurance;
- allow the insurer or their authorised persons to access the insured objects and areas and enable them to assess the insurance risk, investigate the functionality and operation of the equipment used to protect property; further they are obliged to submit project, fire-fighting and technical, anti-flood, accounting or other similar documentation to the insurer or their authorised persons for viewing;
- immediately notify the insurer in writing of any change in the requirements that were the basis for concluding the insurance policy, in particular changes in the insured's operating activities, type and extent of insurance risk, insured value of insured property, place of insurance, equipment used to protect insured property;
- keep the insured property in good technical condition, comply with the provisions of technical standards and regulations, generally binding legal regulations, general insurance terms and conditions, special insurance terms and conditions related to the arranged insurance, supplementary insurance conditions and the insurance policy;
- ensure that an insured event does not occur and take appropriate measures to avert one;
- pay premiums in the specified amount by the due dates;
- immediately notify the insurer of the damage and confirm it within 5 days in writing;
- take appropriate steps to mitigate the consequences of the damage and request the instructions from the insurer and follow them;
- immediately notify the police of damage that has occurred in circumstances giving rise to suspicion of a criminal offence and allow the insurer access to the police investigation file;

When and how do I pay?

- The date and method of payment of insurance premiums or premium instalments are specified in the insurance policy.
- Unless otherwise agreed in the insurance policy, the premium is payable on the first day of the insurance period.

When does the cover start and end?

- The insurance will start on the first day after the insurance policy is taken out, unless it has been agreed by the contracting parties that the insurance will start from the conclusion of the insurance policy or a later date of insurance has been determined.

The insurance terminates:

- upon expiry of the insurance period specified in the insurance policy;
- if the premium for the first insurance period or the one-off premium has not been paid within three months from the date of its maturity, the insurance expires at the end of this period;
- if the premium for the next insurance period has not been paid within one month from the date of delivery of the insurer's request for payment, unless the premium was paid before the delivery of this request. The insurer's request must contain a notice that the insurance will expire in the event of non-payment, while the same applies if only part of the premium has been paid;
- dissolution of the insured;
- by a written agreement between the policy holder and the insurer;
- if the possibility that the insured event occurs, i.e. the termination of the insured item, disappears.

How do I cancel the policy?

- by a written notice at the end of the insurance period, while the notice must be delivered to the insurer no later than six weeks before the end of the insurance period,
- by a written notice within two months from the date of taking out the insurance policy, with an eight day notice period;
- by a written notice within one month from the date of the provision of the insurance indemnity or its rejection, while the notice period is eight days and upon its expiry the insurance expires;
